Defendant(s) :
-----X-----

TAKE NOTICE, the Plaintiff, Dante Jones, hereby appear in this action by his attorneys, Umoh Law Firm, and demands that all papers be served upon him, at the address below, in this matter.

Plaintiff, Dante Jones, by his attorney, Nkereuwem Umoh Esq., complaining of the defendants, The City of New York, P.O. Joseph Perry, Sgt. Thomas Kennedy, and "Jane Does" AND "John Does" collectively referred to as the Defendants, upon information and belief alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action at law to redress the deprivation of rights secured to the plaintiff under color of statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, and or to redress the deprivation of rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the plaintiff by the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 [and § 1985], [and arising under the law and statutes of the State of New York].
2. This is an action to further seek compensation for the serious and permanent personal injuries sustained by the plaintiff, as a result of the negligence of the defendants, perpetrated while said defendant police officers were in the process of illegally and unlawfully arresting plaintiff.

JURISDICTION

3. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 28 U.S.C. §1343(3), this being an action authorized by law to redress the deprivation of rights secured under color of state and city law, statute, ordinance, regulation, custom and usage of a right, privilege and immunity secured to the plaintiff by the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Jurisdiction of this court exists pursuant to 42 USC §1983 and under the Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
4. All causes of action not relying exclusively on the aforementioned federal causes of action as a basis of this Court's jurisdiction are based on the Court's supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1337 to hear state law causes of action. The events, parties, transactions, and injuries that form the basis of plaintiff's federal claims are identical to the events, parties, transactions, and injuries that form the basis of plaintiff's claims under applicable State and City laws.
5. As the deprivation of rights complained of herein occurred within the Eastern District of New York, venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331 (b) and (c).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff Dante Jones resides in Brooklyn, New York and is a resident of the State of New York. Plaintiff was 17 years old at the time of his arrest.
7. Defendant Police Officers are, and at all times relevant to this action, were officers employed by the City of New York and acting under color of state law. Said officers are being sued in both their individual and official capacities.
8. The Defendant, City of New York is a municipality in the State of New York and employs the Defendants Police Officers.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

9. On or about July 18, 2008, at approximately 10:30 AM, at 590 Ocean Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, plaintiff was sitting on his front porch when 3 or 4 plaintiff clothes police officers approached him. He was seated alone.

10. Plaintiff was handcuffed and taken to the 70th precinct, where he was held for approximately 30 minutes before his mother arrived. Plaintiff was eventually questioned in the absence of his mother for approximately an hour. He was eventually charged with assault in the first second and third degree, menacing, reckless endangerment, attempted murder, criminal possession of a weapon and criminal use of a weapon.
11. The arresting officers did not tell plaintiff why he was being arrested, not read him any rights.
12. Prior to and after conducting the unlawful arrest against the plaintiff, plaintiff informed the police officers that plaintiff was not the suspect they sought and there was no cause to take him into custody.
13. The plaintiff was questioned without the benefit of a lawyer or a parent. Thereafter the plaintiff was taken to Central Booking where they were housed in a holding pen with numerous other arrested persons.
14. After being duly detained at central booking, plaintiff was arraigned and charged with murder. He was held for over 24 hours in jail before he saw a judge.
15. That even though the defendant police officers and District Attorney knew, or should have known, based on the facts that no crime had been committed, they still proceeded to arrest plaintiff, charge and then drop same charges, assault and incarcerate plaintiff just to intimidate plaintiff, further aggravating the plaintiff's injuries.
16. That at no time during the arrest was plaintiff read his Miranda rights. The charges were eventually dropped against plaintiff on May 19, 2010.
17. At no time did plaintiff commit any offense against the laws of New York City and or State for which an arrest may be lawfully made. At no time did the plaintiff trespass at the alleged property or commit any illegal acts, or engage in any conduct which in any way justified the brutal and unlawful actions of the police.

18. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer injuries, including but not limited to emotional distress, nightmares, panic attacks, mental anguish and unwarranted severe anger bouts some or all of which may be permanent.
19. The unlawful arrest of plaintiff, plaintiff's wrongful imprisonment and malicious prosecution, because of defendants' knowledge of a lack of any legitimate cause or justification, were intentional, malicious, reckless and in bad faith.
20. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer, mental anguish, repetitive injury, psychological and emotional distress, and physical pain and suffering, some or all of which may be permanent.
21. As a direct and proximate result of his unlawful detention, assault, confinement, Plaintiff has lived in terror of their attack, and continues to suffer from nightmares, are fearful of going outside and when he sees the police, and suffer various emotional attacks, in addition, and have been unable to function normally which has caused a severe strain and breakdown in his personal relationships, in and outside of his home.
22. As a direct and proximate result of defendant's actions, plaintiff was arrested, detained without just or probable cause.
23. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiffs were deprived of rights, privileges and immunities under the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the City of New York and the State of New York.
24. Defendant City of New York, as a matter of policy and practice, has with deliberate indifference failed to properly sanction or discipline police officers including the defendants in this case, for violations of the constitutional rights of citizens, thereby causing police officers including defendants in this case, to engage in unlawful conduct.

25. Defendant City of New York, as a matter of policy and practice, has with deliberate indifference failed to sanction or discipline police officers including the defendants in this case, who are aware of and subsequently conceal violations of the constitutional rights of citizens by other police officers thereby causing and encouraging police officers including defendants in this case, to engage in unlawful conduct.
26. The actions of defendants, acting under color of State law, deprived plaintiff of his rights, privileges and immunities under the laws and Constitution of the United States; in particular, the rights to be secure in his person and property, to be free from the excessive use of force and from malicious prosecution, abuse of process, and the right to due process.
27. By these actions, defendants have deprived plaintiff of rights secured by the Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983.
28. A written claim was filed upon the City of New York, and at least thirty-days have elapsed since the service of the Notice of Claim and the adjustment or the payment of the claim has been neglected or refused.
29. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.
